

ANOTHER VICTIM IN AUTO CRASH JURY BLAMES DRIVER FOR GIRL'S DEATH

CUYUNA MAN KILLED IN COLLISION; "PAL" GIVEN LITTLE HOPE

Mike Vranas is Third Victim in Automobile Accidents in and Near City in Week

John Palm Reported Dying; Joe Stein Suffers Fracture of Arm in Highway Smashup

The toll of death laid to automobile accidents within the past week jumped to three last night with the death of Mike Vranas, 22, Cuyuna, killed instantly when the car he was driving crashed headon into that driven by Joseph Stein, Brainerd, on Highway No. 27, a few miles south of Crow Wing.

John Palm, 24, "buddy" to the dead man, and occupant of the car, has failed to regain consciousness at the St. Joseph's hospital. His skull is fractured. Physicians reported at 4 p. m. today there is practically no hope for recovery.

Joseph Stein, Mansfield Norquist and Donald Norquist, all of Brainerd, occupants of the other car, escaped without serious injury.

Stein suffered a fractured arm but was permitted to leave the hospital this morning. The Norquist brothers were cut and bruised.

Coroner D. E. Whitney summoned a jury for an inquest starting at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Vranas was so badly crushed by the crash that friends who saw his body today said they were unable to recognize him. His head was gruesomely mangled.

Joe Stein in a statement to the Dispatch today said he was driving towards Brainerd and that the car which struck him was travelling south. He said he kept as far as possible to his side of the road.

After the crash when the car driven by Vranas struck the car driven by Stein on the left side of the radiator, the Vranas car turned over three times on the pavement. Vranas and Palm were pinned under the wrecked car. Vranas was dead and Palm was bleeding profusely from the head.

Pieces of flesh from the victims clung to the wrecked cars even to this morning.

The car driven by Stein, a Graham-Paige, was badly wrecked. The Essex sport model roadster owned by Vranas was a total wreck.

The wreck which caused his fatality was the second accident which Vranas had near Brainerd. Last spring he crashed into a tree on highway No. 19 at the first turn in the road beyond the N. P. railway track in West Brainerd.

Vranas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vranas.

Insisting that she see the body, Mrs. Vranas collapsed as she saw the remains of her son at the mortuary this morning. She was revived after being unconscious for five minutes.

The death of Vranas came within a week of two others due to automobile accidents. Jeannette Bakula, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bakula, East Oak Street, was killed last Thursday afternoon when she fell from a truck while accepting a ride home from the Harrison school. The driver of the truck was exonerated of blame by a coroner's jury. Lucille Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Preston, 424 South 9th Street, was killed instantly in the tragic crash Tuesday evening on Ash Avenue. The driver of the car, Dwight McFerran, was blamed for the death by a coroner's jury today.

EXTENDED FROM CANADA TO BERMUDA

SUPPLIED MOST OF IMPORTED LIQUOR TO EASTERN BOOT-LEG MARKET

RADIO STATION KEPT IN TOUCH WITH FLEET OF SIX OCEAN GOING VESSELS

New York, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—A mighty rum empire which spread along the Atlantic coast from the French possession off the eastern shores of Canada to the Bermudas has been smashed by a single, well directed blow.

Throughout the domain of this powerful organization, which supplied most of the imported liquor to the eastern bootleg market, were spread, for operative purposes, a large number of citadels protected by machine gun nests and heavily armed men.

On a hilltop five miles back of Highlands, N. J., a radio station kept in constant communication with a fleet of six ocean-going, liquor carrying vessels as well as a number of speed boats. It was literally the nerve center of the organization.

At 4:30 P. M. yesterday the rum empire collapsed precipitately. At that hour 130 treasury agents, Deputy United States marshals and state police, converged simultaneously on 35 "branches" of the ring, stationed along the coast from Sag Harbor, L. I., to Atlantic City, N. J., seized perhaps millions of dollars of liquor and made more than 30 arrests.

A group of armed agents forced the radio operator from his set, a federal man took his place at the key and started a string of code messages to a rum-laden syndicate boat, leading it into an unsuspected rendezvous with a coast guard destroyer off Montauk Point, L. I.

Not far from the radio station, another group of agents captured "The Mansion," a veritable fortress which had a machine gun nest in the cupola, telescopes mounted on an observation tower and spacious underground storage rooms.

Agents also descended on warehouses, offices and salerooms of the organization in the metropolitan area and persons not named in the federal indictments for 34 principals in the syndicate were arrested. Authorities regarded two of the captured as "prizes." They were Manny Kessler and Morris Sweetwood, for years known as the bootleg kings of New York.

The liquor ring was said to have had headquarters in New York City and was operated like a regular business corporation.

The organization had a board of directors, it was said, who met once a week and declared dividends. The six vessels operated by the rum-running concern are of approximately 35 tons, 15 knots speed and have a capacity of 3,000 cases of liquor each.

Usually the ships operated between the French possessions of St. Pierre and Miquelon, off Canada and Bermuda. As the vessels passed the New Jersey and Long Island coast, the contraband was taken off by speedboats.

The liquor was then taken by guarded trucks to a cutting plant near the radio station. Consequently, every time a vessel completed a round trip, 12,000 cases of cut liquor found their way into the United States.

James Murphy, listed as one of the board of directors of the ring, which met in a regular business office in uptown New York, has been located in Montreal and is on his way back here to give himself up, Watts announced. Murphy was sought last night after the raids. He is believed to have been "traffic manager" for the elaborate organization, co-ordinating its activities in Canada and Bermuda and directing operations of the ring's boats at sea and the fleets of speedboats and trucks which landed and distributed wet cargoes.

Although only 35 men were named in the indictments on which the raids were made, Watts said at least 100 and perhaps 150 more men were in the employ of the ring. At least 30 were required to man the sea-going craft and the trucking system used 40 more. Probably scores more were employed on the speedboats and at the roadhouses to which the liquor was brought and as guards.

Watts also expressed belief that the smashed ring was a merger of several large combinations which formerly operated independently. Alexander P. MacPhee, federal prohibition administrator for the Philadelphia district, said he doubted "Manny" Kessler, reputed leader of the smashed ring, was its "real brains." Kessler, who has already served a term in Atlanta prison for liquor conspiracy, was among those captured yesterday.

"There are others higher up than Kessler," MacPhee said. "Of that I am certain."

Yesterday's raids were only the be-

EXECUTED FOR AMBUSH OF VOTERS IN ITALY

Pola, Italy, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—Vladimir Gortan was executed by a firing squad just before dawn today for his part in the ambush of a party of voters on March 24.

The execution took place near the scene of the crime. His brother, Vitale, the brothers Dussan and Luci Ladacaz and Vittorio Bacchiaz, alleged accomplices of Gortan in his act of terrorism, were sentenced to serve 30 year prison terms.

The five men, who although Italian citizens through circumstances, were Jugo-Slav by birth and heart, shot at voters who were preparing to voice their approval or disapproval of fascist policies. One voter was killed and others were wounded.

PAUL J. KVALE IS ELECTED TO CONGRESS SEAT

DEFEATS OPPONENT, J. C. MORRISON, BY MORE THAN 2 TO 1 MARGIN

SECRETARY-SON OF LATE THIRD PARTY MEMBER IN HOUSE CARRIES EVERY COUNTY

Willmar, Minn., Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—Paul J. Kvale, 33-year-old son of the late O. J. Kvale, today became the one farmer-labor member of the house of representatives when, unofficially, he turned from Wednesday's seventh congressional district election indicated he had defeated J. C. Morrison, his republican opponent, by more than a 2 to 1 margin.

With 372 precincts out of 389 reported the unofficial count was Kvale 21,703; Morrison, 9,657.

Morrison conceded Kvale the victory.

The secretary-son of the last third party member in the house apparently carried every county in the district.

O. J. Kvale, who was re-elected to congress in 1928 over Lawrence W. Carlson, republican, by a margin less pronounced than that scored by his son Wednesday, perished more than a month ago when his lake cottage was destroyed by fire.

French Naval Experts Object to Naval Ratios

Paris, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—French naval experts will oppose any effort to apply the naval ratios agreed upon for capital ships at the Washington conference to cruisers, destroyers and submarines at the forthcoming five-power conference in London, the United Press learned today. The Washington conference ratio on battleships gave Italy parity with France. Italy is now asking parity with France on other classes of war vessels.

ALL MEMBERS OF FEDERAL FARM BOARD APPROVED

Washington, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—The eight members of President Hoover's federal farm board today had the approval of the senate after democrats and independent republicans led an unsuccessful attack on President Hoover's selections.

Five were confirmed without a dissenting vote, including William F. Schilling, Minnesota. Samuel R. McKelvie, former governor of Nebraska, received the largest opposition, most of the democrats voting against him. The vote on his confirmation was 50 to 27. The vote on Chairman Legge was 67 to 13. Senators Smith, S. C. Wheeler, Mont.; Heflin, Ala., and Caraway, Ark., all democrats, led the opposition to the nominations.

ginning of a great drive against bootleggers in which the next offensive probably will be against the fleet of rum ships anchored off the coast, MacPhee said.

Kessler and his associate, Morris Sweetwood, were released today by District Attorney Phillip Forman at Trenton who said the two men were not named in the indictments and that the government had no charges on which to hold them.

After checking up on reports from the multiple raiding parties which he directed from his office in Newark, William J. Calhoun, New Jersey prohibition administrator, announced that more than 150 men were arrested in the coup.

McINTEE IS A HERO, CAPTURED TWO FUGITIVES

TOOK AS PRISONERS LEO C. HUMBERT AND JOSEPH HENDRICKS

LATTER CONSIDERED NORTHWEST'S MOST DEFIANT CONFESSED BANDITS

St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—Deputy Sheriff Arthur McIntee of Paynesville was the hero of this community today after Leo C. Humbert and Joseph Hendricks, the northwest's most defiant confessed bandits, were lodged again in the "escape proof" cells of the Stearns county jail.

Fellow citizens still lauded McIntee even after 1,000 persons gathered about the jail building to cheer him when Humbert and Hendricks were returned here late Wednesday after they assertedly held up Edward Ortmann, the cashier, and robbed the First State Bank of Meier Grove of $155.

County authorities unhesitatingly gave the deputy sheriff the entire credit for the capture of the two fugitives. To him went the glory of exchanging shot for shot with them during a wild motor car chase until they deserted their automobile and surrendered.

McIntee was notified but a few moments after the bandits left the Meier Grove Bank and he immediately set out to intercept them as they passed through Paynesville. Failing in this he set out in pursuit in his own automobile.

Over rutted roads and past several farm houses the deputy pursued the bandit car for 13 miles, traveling at a 70-mile an hour clip. When they perceived they were being overtaken, Humbert and Hendricks left the car for a roadside wood.

"I could have shot you dead than a doornail," Humbert told the deputy as the two chatted in the jail here late Wednesday.

The confessed bandit referred to his opportunity of taking a careful aim as McIntee chased after the two men through the thick underbrush. Sheriff B. E. Schoener announced after questioning the re-captured fugitives that Humbert admitted they held up the Meier Grove Bank the second time "because Ortmann identified me as the robber who committed the first holdup."

When the bandits entered the bank Wednesday Humbert was asserted to have told the cashier: "I'll teach you to swear falsely against me."

Ortmann identified the suspect in the county jail here as the man who robbed him last August of $900.

The cashier charged that Humbert in Wednesday's holdup was threatening him with a gun and forcing him to the rear of the building when Hendricks warned him that "we'll have to get out of here." Ortmann said he believed Humbert might have injured him if Hendricks had not taken alarm as two patrons entered the bank.

All of the money taken from the Meier Grove institution was said to have been found in possession of the two men, together with the placards nailed up throughout the country bearing their pictures and a notice of reward for their arrest.

County authorities had not decided today what action would be taken against the pair. In view of their confession, it was believed that the first charges of robbery against them might be dismissed.

When they escaped from the jail here Humbert was held in connection with the first holdup of the Meier Grove bank and Hendricks was charged with the robbery of the State Bank of St. Michael.

They made their way from the county jail by sawing through a wall and the bars of a window with hack saw blades, supposedly supplied by friends. The sound of the grinding blades was deadened with chewing gum and the work was believed to have taken a week or more.

After their escape, Sheriff Schoener said he learned, the two men went to Minneapolis where they assertedly stole an automobile and made plans for the "revenge" robbery.

GOODYEAR DIRIGIBLE LOSES ITS WAY AND IS BADLY WRECKED

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—The Goodyear dirigible Vigilant crashed and was wrecked at the Pittsburgh-Butler airport today after it had lost its way last night en route from New York to its base at Akron, Ohio. None was injured.

The blimp was about to take off from the flying field to complete its trip to Akron when it was caught by a gust of wind and crashed against a small airport building which was demolished by the impact.

CORONER'S WARRANT ISSUED FOR ARREST OF YOUNG McFERRAN

Verdict Charges That Youth was Driving Recklessly in Fatal Ride Tuesday Evening

Witness Testifies That Jugs of Liquor were Stolen Before the Authorities Arrive

Dwight D. McFerran was formally placed under arrest at the St. Joseph's hospital here today by Sheriff Claus A. Theorin charged with the death of Lucille Preston, 16-year-old Brainerd high school sub-senior, killed Tuesday evening when the car in which she was riding with McFerran turned over on Ash avenue, 100 feet east of Third avenue, N. E.

The arrest was made on a coroner's warrant issued by Coroner D. E. Whitney immediately after a jury returned a verdict charging McFerran with homicide.

The inquest this morning brought out the fact that two jugs of moonshine whiskey had been stolen from the scene of the accident before the authorities arrived.

Police Officer Erick Graff charged McFerran was a rum runner and that he received a "tip" on McFerran's activities in this line last Sunday.

A blanket saturated with moonshine and two broken jugs were presented to the coroner's jury as evidence.

The verdict returned by the jury at noon today follows:

"This jury finds that Lucille Preston came to her death by an accident caused by reckless driving on the part of Dwight D. McFerran on Tuesday, October 15, at about 9 P. M. on Ash Avenue between Third Avenue and Fourth Avenue, Northeast Brainerd, (Homicide)."

Members of the jury were: A. C. White, O. B. Johnson, Jens Molstad, Conrad Ise, F. C. Rathert, G. E. Lowe. McFerran is reported suffering from internal injuries and may not be able to leave the hospital for some time. His condition was reported as slightly improved today.

Melvin Hall, 211 Gillis Avenue N. E., the only occupant of the car to escape injury, told the jury that "McFerran was driving altogether too fast for our comfort." He estimated the speed of the car as approximately 40 miles an hour.

A statement given under oath to County Attorney Sullivan, Coroner Whitney and Court Reporter Ed Egan by Frank "Bun" Kaufman, occupant with Hall in the rumble seat of the McFerran car in which Kaufman said he urged McFerran not to drive so fast was read by the county attorney to the jury.

One of the statements made by Kaufman which reveals the discomfort he experienced while on the fatal ride, was "By God, I was scared to death back there."

Kaufman suffered a fractured leg and was taken yesterday noon from the hospital here to the N. P. B. A. hospital at St. Paul, he being an employee of the Northern Pacific railway.

Kaufman escaped more serious injury and Hall escaped with minor bruises only by presence of mind. Hall said they crouched as low as they could in the rumble seat and that he was unable to follow the mad careening of the car after it first collided with the side of the Roy Hegstad car a few feet east of Fourth Avenue.

After colliding with the Hegstad car the McFerran car swerved from one side of the road to the other, struck an incline in the side of the road, leaped into the air and toppled head first over on its side, the headlights shining in the opposite direction it was originally travelling before the crash.

Mr. Hegstad was uninjured in the accident with his car. One of the tires on his car blew out and the axle was thrown out of line.

Roy Hegstad, 318 Ninth Avenue N. E., N. P. shop employee, was the first witness called by County Attorney Sullivan for examination.

"I was coming from Gustafson's store, travelled north on Third Avenue and turned the corner on Ash Avenue. I first saw the lights of the approaching car a considerable distance down the street and my attention was attracted by the speed with which the car was coming. I noticed the car coming was on my side of the street so I steered over as far as I could without going into the ditch. The car hit my left rear wheel and I stopped as quickly as I could. I looked through the rear window and saw the car zigzagging along the road and then crash into the side of the road."

The officer said he arrived at the scene of the accident at 9:25 P. M. and that he found two broken jugs and a blanket that smelled strongly of moonshine at the side of the car.

"I had a tip on McFerran last Sunday that he was hauling booze. The car and the ground was saturated with liquor. The odor was so strong you could smell it there yesterday," the officer stated.

J. F. Freeman who operates a gasoline station on the corner of Third Avenue and Ash Avenue, said he heard the crash and ran to the scene of the accident leaving a patron waiting as his father had left the station only a few minutes earlier and he was afraid that he was in the accident.

"I could smell liquor around the car. When I got there four or five jugs were on the ground to the side of the car. Two were broken. I turned to help get the occupants of the car out and when I looked around again the jugs not broken had been taken. I am positive there were two or three jugs more and the color of the liquid in the glass jug looked like moonshine," Mr. Freeman said.

E. R. Freeman, father of J. F. Freeman, said he travelled east on Ash Avenue shortly before the accident and that a car coming down the

In Heart Searching Message

Evangelist Pearl Gilliland brought a heart searching message again last night at the Full Gospel Assembly. Her subject was "The Covered Wagon." She took as her scripture watchwords Luke 12:2, "For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known."

She stated that many people were travelling through life in a covered wagon, keeping everything under cover, but that it was better to tear the cover off and let God blot out the sins that they were trying so carefully to conceal because in the end God would uncover them anyway and then it would be too late for the soul to make peace with God.

There will be a divine healing service tonight and the evangelist will pray for the sick.

AMERICAN LEGION TO ELECT OFFICERS

Local Post to Hold Annual Meeting at Iron Exchange Hall Next Monday Evening

NOMINATIONS MADE OCTOBER 7

Standing Committee on Armory to Make Its Official Report That Night

The local post of the American Legion will hold its annual election of officers at a meeting of the post in the Iron Exchange hall, next Monday evening, October 21 at 8 o'clock.

Nominations for the various offices were made at the last regular meeting of the post on October 7 and since there were a number of nominations, in several instances, for the same office, a keen interest is being shown toward the coming election and it is expected that friends of each nominee will be well represented.

A report of the post activities for the past year will be made and also a report will be given by one of the members of the post who attended the Louisville national convention.

One of the major activities of the local Legion post during the past two years has been their effort to secure an armory for Brainerd. A standing committee was appointed at that time, consisting of Henry Mills, chairman, Clyde E. Parker and Wm. V. Turcotte and later through the efforts of this committee, Adjutant General Walsh of St. Paul, spoke here before an open meeting of the Legion on the possibility of Brainerd securing an armory.

It is now learned in an unofficial way, that through the efforts of our Legion committee, assisted by a number of the clubs and prominent men of the city, that Brainerd has been assured of an armory in the near future. The boys of the American Legion are awaiting anxiously an official report from their standing armory committee, which has been requested, given at the meeting next Monday evening.

Los Angeles, Oct. 17.—(UP)—Elinor Fair, movie actress, has filed suit here for divorce from her actor husband, William Body, on grounds of mental cruelty. Body will not contest the action. The marriage had been considered one of the most romantic in the film colony.

PASTOR'S LEG BROKEN

Rev. M. C. Ehler of Aitkin Injured in an Automobile Accident

Aitkin, Minn., Oct. 17.—As the result of an automobile accident which occurred west of Aitkin, between the Cedar Lake turn and Deerwood, the Rev. M. C. Ehler of the Calvary Baptist church is in St. Joseph's hospital, suffering with a broken leg and severe cuts and bruises. Mrs. Steve Jacobs, who, with her husband and children, were en route to Crosby with Mr. Ehler, also suffered injuries, but these were said not to be serious, and Mrs. Jacobs is able to be home.

The Jacobs car figured in a collision with Frank Reber and Gust Lauterbach, who were driving to Aitkin from Crosby with a large tank of oil. The tank was responsible for the severe injuries received by Mr. Ehler.

It had been the intention of the Baptist congregation here and members of the denomination at Deerwood and Crosby to hold a little surprise party for Mr. Ehler at Crosby, and it was to this function that the Jacobs family was taking him.

EARL H. POTTER ADDRESSES LIONS

Nebraska Man Takes as His Subject "Selling The Town"

MANY CHANGING CONDITIONS

Good Roads and Automobiles Enlarge Trade Extension Territory

Earl H. Potter of Lincoln, Neb., gave an address at the Lion's club last night on Trade Territory Extension under the subject of "Selling the Town."

Mr. Potter drew attention to the changing conditions brought about by good roads and the automobile and stated that the town which profits most by these changes is the one whose leadership has proper vision and the ability to work together.

He stated that a poor plan worked well accomplishes more than a good plan where only a few are willing to cooperate, and suggested as a new definition for cooperation the willingness of a man to work hard for the success of a plan suggested by one's competitor and which he feels sure will not succeed.

Emphasis was placed on the results which might be obtained in creating road will by personal visits made by groups of business men to the surrounding territory telling of the advantages of the city of Brainerd. The whole community was likened to a large wheel. The town representing the hub, the surrounding territory the spokes and all bound together by a great band of loyalty caused by common interests.

"New conditions make new problems and sometimes must be solved by new methods. Do not be afraid to do something new," said the speaker in conclusion.

No More "Iron Maidens"! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Never again need scientific research grope in darkened cellars behind doors bolted against torture. AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE has swept before it the ignorant barrier which stupidly impeded men of genius and science marches proudly on.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's toasted"

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

Lake Levels

LAKE levels are a matter of contention in other counties besides Crow Wing.

The proposal to raise the level of the water in Lake Osakis came before the commissioners of Todd county recently. A large delegation of Osakis business men, together with others who reside in Todd county and who own property either bordering on the lake or on drainage ditches which empty into the lake, was present.

Luther D. Warner, as chairman of the committee seeking to have a higher level established, and thereafter maintained in Lake Osakis by means of a dam to be constructed at the source of the Little Sauk river or somewhere in the river near the lake, presented the petition, which in brief asked that the lake level be established at its former and original level, which according to the best information and belief of the petitioners would be two feet above the present level of the lake.

Figures were introduced by Mr. Warner giving levels at different times in the past 45 years. These figures as reported in the Long Prairie Leader indicated that in 1884 the water level of the lake was 1,326.81 feet above sea level. In 1908 the level was 1,323.43 feet, in 1920 had dropped to 1,320.16 feet or 6.60 feet during the period.

Mr. Warner also stated that in asking for a raise of two feet, the water in the lake would be but four inches higher than it was in May of this year, but it would be raised enough to provide plenty of water to restore the ruined lake shore and fill the bay at the Osakis end of the lake, which under the present water level is a most smelly and insanitary section of the lake.

Chris Heen, a pioneer of the Lake Osakis region, then presented some interesting data relative to the effect such a raise in the lake level might have on ditches. Referring to the fact that it has been suggested that the raised level would back up water into the drainage ditches and by so doing damage land which is now used for hay and other crops, Mr. Heen thought such a theory was erroneous. He was of the opinion that a two-foot raise would not only harm no one, but would be of untold benefit in that it would restore much of the original beauty of Todd county's largest and most beautiful body of water.

It is understood that both Todd and Douglas county boards are to consider the merits of the petition. If the boards agree that the dam should be constructed, then each board will pass a resolution favoring such construction. The matter will then be taken up with the State Game & Fish Commission, which under the law may then proceed with construction of the dam and spillway, the latter having been agreed upon as necessary to control the flow of water into the river in times of extraordinary high water stages in the lake.

FIRE IN OLD HOTEL, SEATTLE, TRAPS GUESTS

PILE UP AT ONLY EXIT, SEVEN DEAD AND FIFTEEN INJURED

HOTEL CONDUCTED BY JAPANESE, TENANTED BY LOGGERS AND LABORERS

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Fire, breaking out in an old hotel in the "Slid Roads" district of Seattle early today trapped a number of guests at the head of the stairway—the only exit—and before firemen could battle their way through the flames seven persons were dead and 15 injured.

Hospital attendants said some of the injured would probably die. The hotel, the Portland, was an old, three-story brick structure, conducted by a Japanese, and tenanted by loggers and laborers.

The fire, believed to have been incendiary, broke out on the second floor and guests on that floor and the third were unable to reach the stairway which was roaring like a draft furnace.

They were piled up screaming, shouting, clawing, fighting, dying. There in a heap of tangled arms and legs, some dead, some dying, the firemen found the victims.

Others had jumped, some to safety, some to death. The Japanese wife of the proprietor, with a scream that could be heard above the din, leaped from the third floor and was critically injured.

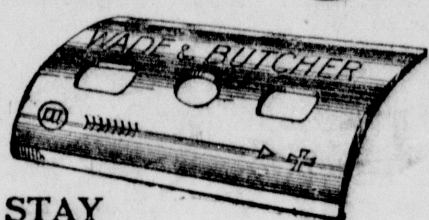

When the fire department arrived the flames were leaping from the upper windows of the old structure, and screaming men could be seen trying to reach the apertures, calling frantically for aid.

The entire downtown and water front forces of the fire department were thrown into action within a few minutes, and for all its human toll it took, the fire was over in a very short time.

The coroner was not immediately able to identify any of the dead, nearly all of whom had died in their night clothing, away from the rooms in which they were registered. Among the identified injured were:

J. Mayeda and wife, proprietors.

Pearls 25,000 Years Old

Ten of the oldest pearls on earth were found by geologists of the University of California in probing among rocks that were laid down 25,000 years ago. They came upon round fossil objects that proved to be real pearls, made by some prehistoric ancestor of the modern oyster, says Popular Science Monthly. They range in size from three-sixteenths to five-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, and in spite of their great age retain some of their luster. The find occurred near Redding, Calif.

HARMON IS SEEKING AN OPPONENT FOR SAMMY MANDELL

SO FAR NONE OF PROPER CLASS IS SIGNED UP

KING TUT LOSES ON A FOUL TO LOPE TENORIO, THE FILIPINO

LAST NIGHT TUT STARTED BLOW FOR TENORIO'S STOMACH, BUT LANDED ON CUP

By BERT DEMBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17. — Very little encouraged by the aspirations of any challenger, Promoter Paddy Harmon today still was seeking an opponent for Lightweight Champion Sammy Mandell.

Harmon has been in quest of that opponent for three months — ever since he signed Sammy for another championship bout — but so far no fighter has shown the class needed to meet Mandell.

Until last night Paddy hoped he could develop King Tut, the Minneapolis fighter, into a drawing card for a bout with Mandell. But Tut spoiled any immediate chances of this when he lost on a foul last night to Lope Tenorio, the Filipino.

That foul was a severe setback to both Harmon and Tut. For Tut the bout with Tenorio was a chance to prove his contentions that he merits a fight with Mandell. For Harmon the battle was a chance to make Tut a drawing card in Chicago.

Tut really is a good fighter as his victories during the past six months over "Honeyboy" Finnegan and Billy Petrolle will attest but he is a careless boy in the ring. Last night he started a punch, a left hook for Tenorio's stomach. The blow landed on Tenorio's cup, and the little Filipino sank to the floor in agony. The fight was approximately two minutes old at the time and the milling had been furious. Suddenly Tenorio let go a right cross but the foul blow landed before his punch did.

That the Filipino was really hurt was evidenced by the fact he could not stand on his feet for fully five minutes. Once, after he had been going through revival measures for some three minutes he tried to rise and again collapsed.

There appeared to be no reason to believe that Tut fouled deliberately. He had everything to lose and nothing to gain by a foul punch and the fight seemed merely to be one of those accidents that happen every so often.

The ten-round heavy eight, windup match was a ferocious but ineffective struggle between Al Friedman, Boston, and Babe Hunt, Ponca City, Okla. Hunt's reach was so much longer than that of his opponent that the Boston boy was forced to resort to infighting to get any punches across.

New York, Oct. 17. — (U.P.) — G. R. K. Carter, Miami Beach sportsman, today had the assurance of Joe Jacobs, American manager of Max Schmeling, that the Teuton heavyweight would engage in a bout under Carter's direction at Miami Beach this winter. Selection of an opponent for Schmeling, Carter said, will be made from Young Stribling, Tuffy Griffiths, Otto Von Porat and Victorio Campolo.

AITKIN LOOMS AS A STRONG OPPONENT FOR LOCAL TEAM

BRAINERD PLAYS BEFORE THE LARGE CELEBRATION CROWD AT AITKIN FRIDAY

In meeting Aitkin Friday Brainerd high will meet a football team as yet undefeated this season and one which is greatly optimistic over a favorable year.

The game will be watched with interest by hundreds who will be in the city attending the Aitkin county festival.

The game should be a battle royal because Brainerd and Aitkin have each beaten Wadena. Aitkin beat Wadena 7 to 6 while Brainerd beat them, 13 to 6.

No comparison can be drawn from these scores as since the Wadena game Brainerd has lost three men, Halvorson and Pat Anderson, by injury in the St. Cloud Tech high game and Schuetz by ineptitude.

Coch Warren Kasch believes the game will be the closest of the season as the teams will be evenly matched especially with Aitkin fighting before a home crowd.

TO ANNOUNCE SUCCESSOR TO MILLER HUGGINS

New York, Oct. 17. — (U.P.) — Announcement of the choice of a successor to the late Miller Huggins as manager of the New York Yankees will be made this afternoon by Secretary Ed Barrow. The decision to make known the name of the man, who is said already to be signed to a one-year contract, was contrary to a statement made Tuesday by club officials that the announcement would be delayed until Oct. 22.

Secretary Barrow indicated that the change in plans was influenced by a desire to begin the rehabilitation of the Yankees which is scheduled to take place before spring.

Arthur Fletcher, coach under Huggins, is believed to be the man under contract for the managerial position.

James R. Garfield Named Chairman of Commission on Federal Domain

Washington, Oct. 17. — (U.P.) — President Hoover today appointed James R. Garfield of Cleveland, former secretary of the interior, to be chairman of the new federal commission on conservation and management of the public domain. The other members of the commission will be selected probably within 10 days.

GRAF ZEPPELIN HEADS FOR HOME

Berlin, Oct. 17. — (U.P.) — The dirigible Graf Zeppelin interrupted its Silesian trip today due to bad weather and headed for its home base at Friedrichshafen.

Rohmer's Exciting Villain Filmed! Sax Rohmer's stories of Dr. Fu Manchu have been best-sellers for years and now Paramount has utilized the facilities of the screen to make this character live in one of his most exciting adventures. "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu," which will show at the Lyceum tonight and Friday takes the crafty, oriental revenger through a series of gripping events.

The Sax Rohmer stories first became popularized through the national magazines and, when they were published in book form, they made a sensation which carried Rohmer's name around the world. The series includes "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu," published in 1913; "The Hand of Dr. Fu Manchu" and "The Yellow Scorpion."

Warner Oland, who plays the title role in Paramount's picturization of "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu," first read the story in 1919 and since that time has negotiated with three different motion picture companies to produce the story.

Blue Blood And Red

by ROBERT TERRY SHANNON

CHAPTER XLIV.

THE most important thing in the universe was the fact that he loved her, and he felt a struggling necessity to explain this, as though it might be a novelty to Marian. He wanted to explain that his adoration was so cosmic that nothing—nothing could shatter it. He tried to speak and the command of words seemed to leave him.

"I — you ought to be told — it seemed like I had to see you tonight and tell you."

His speech bogged down. He had sense enough to know he sounded foolish. Was it possible, he wondered, helplessly, she thought he had been drinking.

"I'm a little upset," he confessed.

There was thin edge of malice in her voice.

"Could it be on account of that pretty young lady I saw you with today?"

"Don't!" he pleaded. "I could explain all that, but I don't want to. I just want to tell you that nothing else but you means anything on earth to me. I want you to understand that—whatever happens."

"I'll try to understand what you're talking about," she said, "if you can bring yourself to tell me exactly what is on your mind."

His eyes, his voice, his whole being struggled for coherence—for a reasonable expression of his presence—but every outlet of expression was clogged.

he muttered.

It dawned upon Eddie that he had worked himself up into an unnatural state of mind dangerously near a nervous breakdown. Despite his youth and strength, the strain he had endured had been so intense that he felt physically burned inside. He was as dry as a furnace; a slight trembling all through his body had passed beyond control. For the first time now he realized, as he tried to talk to Marian, that he might become downright incoherent.

Fear, all at once, shot through him and, strangely, began to have a swift sobering effect. With an effort, greater than any struggle of physical combat, he called up his will power to dissipate the malady of love-delirium.

"I've got myself all tangled up," he told her, slowly, choosing his words carefully. "I hope you don't think I'm as crazy as I've been sounding."

He could sense that Marian, behind an elaborate patience, burned with secret flame-tips of jealousy. Perhaps it really wasn't jealousy—but it was some underlying emotion that veered her almost to sarcasm.

"I think your new lady friend has upset you," she suggested. "Or perhaps she's an old friend."

"I'd like to tell you all about it," he forced himself to say, "but I can't."

"Your conscience seems to be troubling you," Marian remarked.

"They say an open confession is good for the soul. Some day you'll understand all about it," he muttered, vaguely.

"She looked positively brilliant," Marian mused. "I suppose she is direct from New York?"

Eddie nodded helplessly.

"It's funny—I thought it would be wonderful and all my troubles would melt away if I could only see you tonight but I'm here now—and I'm no better off than I was before. All I know is that you are the most wonderful girl in the world, Marian—and I'm crazy in love with you."

She smiled faintly, disbelievingly.

A whip-lashing necessity drove him to leave. It was a rout, a bolt to escape from his own ill-timed impetuosity. Marian made no effort to stall him. A vast sense of shame welled through him that he had allowed himself to sink into a panic—a moral disorganization akin to cowardice. Impatiently, he put aside all possible excuses.

"You've never been through anything like this," he told himself, bitterly, "but that's no alibi. If you had any brains you'd see a way out—you dumbbell!"

Long hours passed as he sat in his room postponing the effort of going to bed. Unhappiness had welled within him until he doubted his own powers to face the problem ahead of him.

COUNTY AGENT ROTH SPEAKS OF FARMING

Shows Rotarians Value of Dairying and Alfalfa Program in Crow Wing County

DAIRY PRODUCT SALES DOUBLE

Mandan Club Refuses to Enter Attendance Contest With Brainerd Rotary Club

County Agent E. G. Roth addressed Brainerd Rotarians Tuesday on the subject of agriculture in the county. In the early days the chief crops were potatoes and rye. During Mr. Roth's term he has worked earnestly with a long term improvement program which included land clearing, raising feed, and improving dairying and the results may be noted when one considers that a 25 per cent increase in the number of cattle in the county has brought about the doubling of the sales value of butter, cream and milk from $600,000 to $1,200,000.

In this progress the first essential was to clear more land and this is being carried out with an increasing acreage every year. Another thing was to secure sufficient feed raised by the farmer for his cattle and this has come through alfalfa. Silos are being introduced and are growing popular. The third phase is securing the right kind of cattle. This was given an impetus in 1923 when an association of business and professional men of the city backed the purchasing of 25 sires. We are now reaping the results for 25 per cent of the 16,000 head of cattle now in the county carry blood of these sires. The farmers, in blocks, have the use of these sires and 148 farmers have thus been advanced on the road to productive dairying. Of the original group all except four bulls have been weeded out and sold to the butcher and in purchasing new stock A. G. Trommald as treasurer and S. R. Adair as a cattle expert have been a great aid to Mr. Roth in making replacements.

Improving soil conditions, planting alfalfa and dairy improvements has made an especially noticeable change in the territory along the pavement from Fort Ripley north. The soil in

SEARCHING FOR MEMBERS OF A WHITE SLAVE RING

2 DES MOINES COLLEGE GIRLS CHARGED TO HAVE BEEN HELD PRISONERS

IN CHINESE DISTRICT HOTEL IN MINNEAPOLIS, CONSORTING WITH CHINESE

Minneapolis, Oct. 17.—(UP)—Federal authorities and police joined today in a search for members of what they termed an "organized white slave ring," after two unnamed Des Moines college girls charged they had been held prisoner in a Chinese district hotel for three days by Mrs. Effie Carter, negress, and forced into intimacies with Chinese. The girls, 24 and 25 years old, rescued from the second story of the hotel and given medical attention, said they were returning to Des Moines from Grand Forks, N. D., when they were lured into the hotel and taken prisoner by Mrs. Carter.

The negress was held charged with conducting a disorderly hotel while the girls, near collapse, were held as material witnesses on vagrancy charges to insure their presence here in the event members of the alleged ring are captured.

One of the girls said she attended the University of North Dakota and the other declared she was enrolled as a student at the University of Iowa at Iowa City.

Police revealed that the Iowa girls in the United States District Court, For the District of Minnesota, Fifth Division.

claimed a negro had attempted to kidnap them before they entered the hotel.

In signed statements to Elizabeth Owen, assistant county attorney, the girls declared they were held in the cheap room for three days while 50 Chinese were allowed to enter their chamber.

"You can't leave here, a woman told us," the statement said, "when we tried to get out. The woman threatened to beat us and said even if we did get out and squal the most she would get would be 90 days."

Not once were they allowed to leave their rooms, the statement continued. The door was locked and meals sent in to them.

E. J. Gustafson, head of the purity squad, led the raid on the hotel after he was said to have been informed by a Chinese that the girls were held prisoners.

No More Piles

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. H. P. Dunn, Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.
